INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Officers and Directors of Solaris Securities, Inc.
1975 Hempstead Tpke.
East Meadow, NY 11554

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Solaris Securities, Inc. (a sub-chapter S corporation) as of December 31, 2002 and the related statements of income, changes in equity, and cash flows for the period then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Solaris Securities, Inc. as of December 31, 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental information is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2002

NOTE 1: Nature of Business

Organization

Solaris Securities, Inc. (The "Company") was formed in the state of Washington as a sub-chapter S corporation under the original name of Sound Investment Services, Inc. On April 24, 2002 the company's name Sound Investment Services, Inc. was amended with the state of Washington to Solaris Securities, Inc. The company is a registered member in the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD) as a broker/dealer and commenced operations in March 26, 1993. All of the Company's trades are cleared through its agent, Penson Financial Services, Inc.

NOTE 2: Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

a) Revenue Recognition

Securities transactions (and the recognition of related income and expenses) are recorded on a settlement date basis, generally the third business day following the transaction date. There is no material difference between trade and settlement date.

b) Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers demand deposited money market funds (net of haircuts) and U.S. treasury obligations to be cash and cash equivalents.

c) Income Taxes

The Company is a sub-chapter S corporation for federal and state purposes and as such income passes directly to the shareholder to be reported as personal income. Therefore no provision for federal corporate taxes has been made. In July of 2001 the company was purchased by Pacific Link Securities, LLC. As of the date of this statement the contract is an excretory contract whereby the transaction has yet to be completed. This can have an effect on the tax status of the company were its S corporation election may be revoked. As of the date of this statement we do not believe additional taxes will be due.

NOTE 2: Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

d) Property and Equipment

Furniture, fixtures and equipment are carried at cost. Depreciation is provided by using the modified accelerated cost recovery system (MACRS) over an estimated useful life of three to ten years. The method is used for book and tax purposes and does not differ materially from Generally Accepted Accounting Principle (GAAP) depreciation methods.

Maintenance, repairs and renewals that neither materially add to the value of the property nor appreciably prolong its life are charged to expense as incurred. Gains and losses on disposition of property and equipment are included in income.

e) Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that management uses.

NOTE 3: Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1) which requires broker dealers to maintain minimum net capital. The ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, shall not exceed 15 to 1 for ongoing concerns. The company's current requirement is $5,000. At December 31, 2002, the Company had a net capital of $39,455, which was $ 34,455 in excess of its net capital requirement of $5,000. The Company's net capital ratio was .08 to 1.

NOTE 4: Concentration of Funds

The company does not maintain inventory of stocks, bonds or other security positions at risk.

NOTE 5: NASD Private Placement

The company maintains a security inventory of 300 warrants from an NASD Private Placement entered at cost on the books and records. The Bank of NY is the registrar and transfer agent as of December 31, 2002.

NOTE 6: Disclosure of Statement of Financial Condition

A statement indicating that the Statement of Financial Condition of the most recent annual audit report of the broker or dealer pursuant to sec. 240.17a-5 is available for examination at the principal office of the broker or dealer and the regional or district office of the Securities & Exchange Commission for the region or district in which the broker or dealer has its principal place of business

NOTE 7: Sarbanes-Oxley Disclosure

Pursuant to section 201 and 202 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, the independent accountant has not received any fee or remuneration at anytime for the audit related services, tax services or any other incidental services during the audit period ended December 31, 2002.

The firm's policies and procedures do not allow for the independent auditor to engage in any activity or service related activity outside of the independent audit.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL STRUCTURE

Board of Directors and Stockholders
Solaris Securities, Inc.
1975 Hempstead Tpke.
East Meadow, NY 11554

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Solaris Securities, Inc. (A Subchapter S corporation) for the period December 31, 2002 we considered its internal control structure, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures (including tests of compliance with such practice and procedures) followed by Solaris Securities, Inc. that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g)(1) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11) and the procedures for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c-3-3.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining a system of internal accounting control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgements by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of control procedures and of the practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the Commission's above mentioned objectives.

Two of the objectives of an internal control structure are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any system of internal accounting control, errors or irregularities may nevertheless occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the system to future periods is subject to the risk that procedures may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with the procedures may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected with a timely period by employees in the normal control structure that we considered to be material weaknesses as defined above, except for:

The size of the business and resultant limited number of employees imposes practical limitations on the effectiveness of those internal control structure procedures that depend on the segregation of duties. Since this condition is inherent in the size of the Company, the specific weaknesses are not described herein and not corrective action has been taken or proposed by the Company.

The foregoing condition was considered in determining the nature, timing and extent of the procedures to be performed in our audit of the financial statements of Solaris Securities, Inc. (A Sub-chapter S corporation) for the year ended December 31, 2002 and this report does not affect our report thereon dated February 28, 2003.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that except for the effect, if any, of the condition indicated in the preceding paragraph, the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2002 to meet the Commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management and the Securities and Exchange Commission, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers/dealers and should not be used for any other purpose.
